OF DEATHS, that annually occur, are caused by Preventable Diseases, and the greater portion of those complaints would, if Radway's Ready Relief or Pills, (as the case may require), were administered when pain or uneasiness or slight sickness is experienced, be exterminated from the system in a few hours. PAIN, no matter from what cause, is almost instantly cured by the Ready Relief. In cases of Cholera, Diarrhoea, Cramps, Spasms, Bilious Cholice, in fact all Pains, Aches and Infirmities either in the Stomach, Bowels, Bladder, Kidneys, or the Joints, Muscles, Legs, Arms, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fever and Ague, Headache, Toothache, &c., will in a FEW MINUTES yield to the soothing influence of the Ready Relief.

Sudden Colds, Coughs, Influenza, Diphtheria, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Chills, Fever and Ague, Mercurial Poison, Scalded Head, &c., &c., take from four to six of Radway's Pills, and also take a teaspoonful of the Ready Relief in a glass of warm water, sweetened with sugar or honey; bathe the throat, head and chest with Ready Relief, (if Ague or Intermittent Fever, bathe the spine also,) in the morning you will be cured.

How the Ready Relief Acts!

In a few minutes the patient will feel a slight tingling irritation, and the skin becomes reddened; if there is much distress in the stomach, the Relief will assist nature in removing the offending cause—a general warmth is felt throughout the entire body, and its circulatory stimulating properties rapidly courses through every vein and tissue of the system, arousing the sluggish and partially paralyzed glands and organs to renewed and healthy action, perspiration follows, and the surface of the body feels increased heat. The sickness at stomach, colds, chills, head-ache, oppressed breathing, the soreness of the throat, and all pains, either internally or externally, rapidly subside, and the patient falls into a tranquil sleep, awakes refreshed, invigorated, cured.

It will be found that in using the Relief externally, either on the spine or across the kidneys, or over the stomach and bowels, that for several days after a pleasing warmth will be felt, showing the length of time it continues its influence over the diseased parts.

Price of R. R. R. RELIEF, 50 cents per bottle. Sold by Druggists and Country Merchants, Grocers, &c.

TYPHOID FEVER.

This disease is not only cured by Dr. Radway's Relief and Pills, but prevented. If exposed to it, put one teaspoonful of Relief in a tumbler of water. Drink this before going out in the morning, and several times during the day. Take one of Radway's Pills one hour before dinner, and one on going to bed.

If seized with Fever, take 4 to 6 of the Pills every six hours, until copious discharges from the bowels take place; also drink the Relief diluted with water, and bathe the entire surface of the body with Relief. Soon a powerful perspiration will take place, and you will feel a pleasant heat throughout the system. Keep on taking Relief repeatedly, every four hours, also the Pills. A cure will be sure to follow. The Relief strengthens, stimulates, soothes, and quiets; it is sure to break up the Fever and to neutralize the poison. Let this treatment be followed, and thousands will be saved. The same treatment in Fever and Ague, Yellow Fever, Ship Fever, Bilious Fever, will effect a cure in 24 hours. When the patient feels the Relief irritating or heating the skin, a cure is positive. In all cases where pain is felt the Relief should be used.

Relief 50 cts.; Pills 25 cts. Sold by all Druggists.

Circuit Court, 3d Circuit, Hawaii, November Term 1869.

The Court opened at Waimea on Tuesday, the 2nd inst. Mr Justice Widemann presiding, Circuit Judge Hart on the Bench.

Rex vs. Wahinepupuka, charged with selling spirituous liquor without license. The Attorney General moved the Court that the defendant be discharged on his own recognizance, the witnesses being out of the Kingdom, and the defendant having already been in prison four months. The Court granted the motion.

John Peters vs. L. McCully, continued from last term. Mr. Jones for plaintiff, Mr. Phillips for defendant. Defendants' counsel filed an agreement of parties to continue the case until the November term A. D. 1870, and that if either party desires a trial at that or any subsequent term, he may be entitled to it upon giving to the other party thirty days notice in writing, but not otherwise. The Court ordered the case to be continued according to the agreement.

Rex vs. Kellilike, charged with larceny of animals, on appeal from Hon. D. K. Nalapaikai, Local Circuit Judge. The Attorney General entered a nol. prosc. The Court ordered the defendant to be discharged.

Pankaea vs. Kamalepikane et al. Trespass. The court upon motion of Mr. Jones, counsel for plaintiff, ordered the case to be continued until next term.

H. Parry vs. Waimea Grazing and Agricultural Company. Mr. Jones for plaintiff, Mr. Phillips for defendant. Mr. Phillips for defendants moved to dismiss the case because, 1st. The summons issued under the seal of this Court has not been served by an officer to whom the same has been directed, nor by any officer competent to serve the same within the Island of Oahu, within which said process appears to have been served; 2d. Said summons does not require the defendant named in the petition to be summoned; 3d. The defendant named in such petition has neither been duly served with process nor ordered to be so served 4th. The petition is not stamped. Mr. Jones for plaintiff, admits that the points are all well taken, but moves the Court to be allowed to file an amended petition. The Court ordered the case to be dismissed.

Hitecock and Brother vs. Waliki, desertion of bound service, on appeal from Hon. F. S. Lyman, Local Circuit Judge, acting for the Police Justice of Hilo. Mr. Lindsey, for plaintiffs, moved the Court to continue the case until the next term, at Hilo. Mr. Mahoe, for defendant, consented to the continuance. The Court ordered the case to be continued.

Allen and Conway vs. Wahinepuka—Action to recover the sum of $308.50, the face of a certain promissory note, dated Nov. 30th, 1868, with interest. Defendant appeared, and confessed judgment. The Court ordered judgment to be entered up for the plaintiffs in the sum of $308.50, with interest at the rate of 1 per cent. per month, for two months, and at the rate of 9 per cent. per annum, from the expiration of the two months to date.

Rex vs. Kawamahi—Charged with perjury, committed before Hon. D. K. Nalapaikai, Local Circuit Judge, in the case of Chas. Noley vs. Panikaka, for desertion of bound service, the defendant having sworn that at the time of the execution of the contract for service, the said Panikaka was under the age of 20 years. The Attorney General for the Crown; Mr. Mahoe for the defendant. Verdict, guilty. Sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for the term of eight months.

Rex vs. Kaulaloa, charged with distilling spirits. On appeal from Hon. D. K. Nalapaikai, Local Circuit Judge. The Attorney General for the Crown; Mr. Jones for the defendant. Verdict, not guilty.

Rex vs. Joseph Chiesboro, charged with distilling spirits. On appeal from the District Justice of South Kohala. The Attorney General for the Crown; Mr. Jones for the defendant. Verdict, not guilty.

Rex vs. Aa, charged with furnishing spirituous liquors to a native of this Kingdom. The Attorney General for the Crown; Mr. Jones for defendant. Mr. Harris and Mr. Mahoe, on behalf of Kalea, the surety on defendant's bond for costs, moved the Court that the surety be discharged from further responsibility in the premises. The Court overruled the motion. Verdict, guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $50, or in default thereof, to be imprisoned at hard labor for the term of six months, and to pay costs.

Rex vs. Kameo and Pawela, charged with distilling spirits. On appeal from Hon. D. K. Nalapaikai, Local Circuit Judge. The Attorney General entered a nolle proscut. upon the payment of costs.

Rex vs. Nalapaiche, charged with distilling spirits. On appeal from Hon. D. K. Nalapaikai, Local Circuit Judge. The Attorney General entered a nolle proscut. upon the payment of costs.

Rex vs. Kellilike, charged with distilling spirits. On appeal from Hon. D. K. Nalapaikai, Local Circuit Judge. The Attorney General for the Crown; Mr. Jones for the defendant. Counsel for defendant moved the Court to instruct the jury to find a verdict of not guilty, as he claimed that there was no proof of any distillation whatever, nor of the finding of any spirits upon defendant's premises. Motion overruled. Exceptions noted. Verdict, guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $300, or in default thereof, to be imprisoned at hard labor for the term of three months, and to pay costs.

The Attorney General suggested to the Court that no bill had been found against Halulu, (w.) who had been committed for appearance at this term, and she was ordered by the Court to be discharged.

Rex vs. Pomaikai, charged with distilling spirits. On appeal from Hon. D. K. Nalapaikai, Local Circuit Judge. The Attorney General entered a nolle proscut.—the principal witness having died.

Holli et al. vs. Kamohala. This was a Bill in Chancery, to compel the conveyance of a piece of land in the District of North Kona. The case was dismissed, this Court having no jurisdiction. Counsel agreed that the case should be heard before Mr. Justice Widemann, in Honolulu.

CONFEDERATE LOSSES IN THE CIVIL WAR.—Dr. Joseph Jones, Secretary of the Southern Historical Society, has prepared an estimate of the losses of the Confederate army during the war, which is as follows: Killed, 53,733; wounded, 124,025; prisoners, 292,283. He thinks that if the deaths among the discharged for wounds and diseases, and among the sick and wounded on furlough, be added, the grand total of deaths in the Southern army during the entire war did not fall short of 200,000.

The Gold Room.

The gold room in Wall Street is only another name for gambling room. Men congregate there to bet upon the price of gold, that it will be higher or lower as the case may be, in the next hour, day or week.

Rex vs. Wahinepupuka, charged with selling spirituous liquor without license. The Attorney General moved the Court that the defendant be discharged on his own recognizance, the witnesses being out of the Kingdom, and the defendant having already been in prison four months. The Court granted the motion.

Halting Industry.

The most extensive ship-yard in the city, well found in every facility for ship-building, having ways, a steam mill, wharf and yard, room enough to put half a dozen ships on the stocks at once—is for rent. Two foundries are idle, one or more shoe manufacturers have stopped work for the present. And not more than one-fourth of the building projected early last spring will be executed this season. There has been a tightness of the money market to be sure, but the market is becoming easier, and the returns of the harvest ought to make money reasonably abundant.

A persistent attempt has been made in this city during the past few months, to create as many antagonisms as possible between capital and labor. A few small demagogues have thrust their heads above the surface for a time, and have ridden the labor question, not because they cared anything about laboring men, but because this was a convenient hobby to ride. A strong appeal could be made to class prejudice. It made little difference for the time that these leaders were obnoxious to the people, or that they were the veriest drones, eating work with the peculiar aversion of vermin. Not a single industrial enterprise could be started but they conspired an impudent interference, and contrived every means to invest in capital, as in some way, they could not tell how, arrayed against labor. Now, what has come of this senseless crusade? Are the times any better for the laborer or the capitalist? Very much of the stagnation of business in the department of building and construction, is due to the hue and cry and stupid out-cries of a few hobby riders who have made against the use of capital in the direction pointed out. When the chances between profit and loss are about even, it requires but little weight to turn the scale against a venture. And so it happens that blocks of stores and long lines of private dwellings are only on paper, and laid away on the top shelf at the rooms of the architect.

There has been more vexation and trouble to be encountered in carrying forward work of the sort within the past year than was ever known before; and these last considerations have been enough, in many instances, to turn the scale unfavorably. And these antagonisms have been created at a time when the scale against labor has been brought to bear against capital, and when working men of all classes were better paid than in any other country in the world. We have no right effort to lighten the burdens of labor. Some men will work eight hours and some will work ten, because their interests will be promoted thereby; and there never can be any rigid uniformity established in this respect. This brow-beating, plotting and running to and fro with windy denunciations, have borne no good fruits commensurate with the evil that has been done. What we want, just now, is a restoration of confidence, the free employment of capital, and a stronger mutuality of interest established between employers and the employed. If, to accomplish this, it is necessary to lash the clatter of sundry small demagogues, let it be done by all means.—S. F. Bulletin.

A CONJUGAL COMPLIMENT.—"What's the matter, my dear?" said a wife to her husband who had sat for half an hour with his face buried in his hands, apparently in great tribulation. "Oh! I don't know," said he. "I have felt like a fool all day." "Well," replied the wife, consolingly, "I'm afraid you will never get any better; you look the very picture of what you feel!"
